Voting the Democratic ticket is like climbing a dead apple tree to get apples.

Say, Pal, how would your wife look with your pants on and suppose yourself clad in her high-low cut dress—one of these kind that is cut high at the bottom and low at the top.

Democratic prosperity is doing the stunt, the price of bread has jumped, and the Restaurants of the city have been compelled to raise the price of their stuff, and have entirely cut out square meals.

There are some people who give you short weight and short measure over the counter all the week, and then go to church on Sunday and sing "I want to be an angel" and "Oh how I love Jesus". Bah.

We want it distinctively understood that this paper is a Republican paper, and that we stick right to the party, but we are always glad to say a word of good cheer, for all alike let their politics be what they may, and it matters little about your religion you and your God can figure that out.

The Democratic party has given much concern about the Republican party here of late; they are all the time lamenting about Justice Hughes ruining his party. Well, what is it any Democrats business? the Republicans are willing for Hughes to ruin it if he wants to.

What kind of a man would you call a Kentuckian who would let any man come up to him and slap him in the face and not even raise his hand? You would brand him as a coward and tell the world that he was not entitled to the respect of his neighbors, and that is the kind of Kentuckians you

HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do colds settle on your chest or in your bronchial tubes? Do coughs hang on, or are you subject to throat troubles?

Such troubles should have immediate treatment with the strengthening powers of Scott's Emulsion to guard against consumption which so easily follows.

Scott's Emulsion contains pure cod liver oil which peculiarly strengthens the respiratory tract and improves the quality of the blood; the glycerine in it soothes and heals the tender membranes of the throat.

Scott's is prescribed by the best specialists. You can get it at any drug store.

Scott & Borne, Bloomfield, N. J.

are to vote for wobbling Woodrow.

There was a little cross eyed, red headed, freckled face woman on the train that was raising all kinds of h— for Woodrow the other day. She said that she was for him because he had passed the eight hour law, that her husband was never known to do a days work, and she believed that she was entitled to the benefit of the eight hour law, we was compelled to agree with the poor thing; we might have advised her to get a divorce but that would have been an injustice to her for she might have never found another that was willing to take a chance.

The dead is soon forgotten. This is true and it is easy to be seen. Not long ago there came to this town a man who once stopped with a certain man because of the fact that they were Confederate Veterans; that they were members of the same company and regiment; they fought side by side, the days of the rebellion is over, the one who has gone to his final reward is so far forgotten, that this man who stopped with his comrade, came to the city, did not go to the home of his comrade's widow to say a word of cheer, or to remind this faithful wife that he held his once "old comrade" in kind remembrance, although he was within a stone's throw of her humble home whose doors swung open to him, and she expected him to at least call.

WILSON SNUB FOR FARMERS

Hughes Shows How Tillers of the Soil Were Ignored in Railroad Discussion.

CROP RAISERS FOOT BILL TO PAY FOR BROTHERHOOD DEAL.

Democratic Nominee Levelled a Body Blow at the Interests of Our Agricultural Communities When at the Behest of an Exclusive Group of Railroad Workers He Increased Their Pay Without Investigating the Justice of the Demand.

Charles E. Hughes, who left Lincoln for his second day's campaigning in Nebraska, told a crowd of farmers in his speech there that the Democratic Administration had ignored the agricultural interests of the country in urging the enactment of the Adamson law. The nominee in support of his contention, cited a telegram from President H. N. Pope of the Texas Farmers' Union to President Wilson requesting that the farmers be permitted to submit data in arbitration proceedings between the railroads and the brotherhoods. He said:

Someone Must Pay.

"I want to say in reference to rates that it seems to me the farmers of the country were very little considered the other day, when on the demand of the Administration the wages of a group of railroad workers were increased by law, in response to force. Somebody has got to pay the increased bills, and the farmers will know very quick who has to pay them."

"The farmers were not represented in this discussion, if you may call it that in this surrender—I have here a copy of a telegram that was sent to the President by Mr. Pope, the president of the State Farmers' Union of Texas, which I shall read to you:

"We ask that you make no concessions or commitments that will in any manner cause an increase in freight rates on products produced or consumed on the farm. The men who pay the freight have an equity in this dispute, which neither the railroad managers nor the railroad managers have authority to represent. If it is your intention to personally dispose of the matter we ask that you postpone further consideration until a committee of farmers can prepare information and data to present their side of the case. If you conclude to settle by arbitration, then the organized farmers should have representation on any arbitration committee that may be formed to dispose of this question; for the men who pay should have representation as well as the men who receive it."

"We again urge that all questions involved be settled by arbitration, where all parties and all interests can be heard and the subject dealt with aside from haste and intimidation."

Asked to Abdicate Authority.

The crowd cheered when Mr. Hughes concluded reading the telegram.

"No remark was paid to that message," Mr. Hughes said. "The business men of the country, through the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, were at the same time and had for many weeks before been exploring the executive and leaders in congress for an immediate and prompt inquiry in order that the justice of this matter might be known. The farmers were not there except through the presence of the representatives of the people in congress, and those representatives were asked to abdicate their authority."

"I am in favor of everything that can reasonably be done for the promotion of agriculture. I am glad to note the work of the Agricultural Department. It will be continued with me, if I am entrusted with the power, to the utmost of efficiency under my administration."

A Body Blow Levelled.

"But it is idle to talk of interest in the farmer when you have action like this taken in congress overnight, against the protests of the farmer, and leveling a body blow at the interests of our agricultural communities."

Mr. Hughes again denied the declaration that a vote for him "meant a vote for war."

Mr. Wilson says the election of Mr. Hughes will mean war with Europe and war with Mexico. Why not chuck in Abyssinia and Patagonia for good measure? One is as likely as the other.

Now Ellis Parker Butler, author of "Figs Is Figs," has declared for Wilson. It's a great administration for pork all right.

Now that Mr. Hughes has left Missouri they're referring to it out there as the "L. H. Showdown" state.

A doorman leads a life of supreme peace, but it has to stand for an awful lot of stepping on.
